On Tuesday, December 06, 2011 at approximately 1830 hours, the undersigned officer obtained a complaint from the victim reference to the subject identified as the defendant, Luther Pritt, harassing her.

The undersigned officer obtained a hand written statement from the victim. In summary, the victim advised, the defendant arrived at her car with a bike around the 14th of November. The victim continued, shortly after the defendant started driving by her residence, the victim advised the defendant would pull up and park behind her while waiting to pick up her son from school. The victim continued, the defendant's brother, Gary Pritt, was standing talking to her while the defendant was parked right behind her car, and told her the defendant scare her. The victim continued, on way day herself and Emory Grimes were at the post office and she had went to the post office and stood right behind her. The victim further advised, during the last two weeks while attending spin class in Marlinton the defendant would drive by as many as 4 times while she was there.
